Legence Bank Promotes Destiny Partain to Mortgage Loan Officer

Eldorado, IL – Legence Bank is pleased to announce the promotion of Destiny Partain to mortgage loan officer. Partain will be based in the Harrisburg, Ill. branch located on Commercial Street and will focus on residential mortgage loans in the Saline County area.

“Destiny has made an excellent addition to the Legence Bank family and we are thrilled by her success,” said Kevin Beckemeyer, Legence Bank President and CEO. “Destiny is driven and her dedication and experience will add even more strength to our exceptional mortgage team.”

Most recently, Partain served as a mortgage processor at the Legence Bank branch in Harrisburg. Partain has a background in finance and has four years of banking experience. She received an associate’s degree from Southeastern Illinois College and graduated from Harrisburg High School.

“It has always been my goal to become a loan officer and I am so thankful that Legence has given me this opportunity,” said Partain. “I have learned so much about residential mortgage lending since I joined the Legence team. Buying a home can be overwhelming and I look forward to working with individuals and families in our community to educate them on their many options and helping them finance their dream homes.”
