

SPLASH INTO SAVINGS PERSONALITY QUIZ

Find out if you're a SEAHORSE, a SHARK, or a SHRIMP with your money!

1. My piggy bank has $10 in it. I'm going to:
 - a. Keep it there and add more money to it.
 - b. Take it out and buy something for my new baby sister.
 - c. Buy myself a toy at the dollar store and give the rest to my local animal hospital.
2. There are only $2 in my piggy bank. I want to:
 - a. Leave the $2 there and add more money to my piggy bank.
 - b. Bring the $2 with me to the beach and buy myself an ice cream cone.
 - c. Buy snacks at the 5th-grade class's fundraiser to help them meet their goal.
3. A new kid in school just lost her favorite toy so I:
 - a. Tell her I'm sorry she lost her toy and sell her one of my extra toys for a quarter, which I can add to my piggy bank.
 - b. Take my piggy bank and buy myself another toy, so that I'll have another one to play with if I lose one.
 - c. Invite my new friend over to play with my toys.
4. When Mom or Dad give me 50 cents for doing a chore around the house, I:
 - a. Add it to my piggy bank, and do more chores to earn more money to save it in my piggy bank.
 - b. Take it with me to school and buy my best friend a snack during lunch.
 - c. Give it to my brother or sister so he or she can put it into his or her piggy bank.

5. The uniform I need to play on the sports team costs $50. So far, I have $30 in my piggy bank. I'm going to:
- Keep the $30 there until I save enough money for the uniform.
 - Take the $30 out of my piggy bank and use it to buy sports trading cards for myself and my friends on the team.
 - Hold a bake sale that raises $200 and use the extra money to start a sports equipment fund for other kids.
6. My piggy bank is overflowing. I'm going to:
- Get a bigger piggy bank, of course!
 - Take all the money out and spend it!
 - Take some of the money to my teacher for our classroom holiday party.
7. I just found $1 in my backpack! I'm going to:
- Put it in my piggy bank.
 - Buy myself something right now. Yippee!
 - Donate it to my favorite charity.
8. My friend is selling lemonade and is using the money she earn to buy books for the local library. I'd like to:
- Leave my money alone but help her sell the lemonade.
 - Say "hi" as I walk by on my way to the movie theater, where I'm using my piggy bank money to buy myself some popcorn!
 - Take some money out of my piggy bank and buy some lemonade to help her cause.

Total A's _____

Total B's _____

Total C's _____

If you had mostly A's, you're a...

SAVING SEAHORSE

You're like the seahorse with your money. You like to gather and save your money in a safe place, and you like to watch your money grow! This is a smart way to use your money, as you'll always have enough to buy what you need and possibly even a little extra to give to someone in need.

If you had mostly B's, you're a...

SPENDER SHARK

You're probably new to both saving and giving money to others because you like to spend it on cool gifts for friends, family, and yourself. Think about what you could do if you saved your money! Remember, you can start saving at any time for the things you need. Then if you have any extra money, you can always buy something for yourself or a friend.

If you had mostly C's, you're a...

SHARING SHRIMP

When it comes to making smart decisions about what to do with your money, you're learning that giving your money to those in need feels good. Helping out a friend or someone in need is a good thing, as long as you remember to save your money first and then see how much you can give to others.

FINANCIAL LITERACY

Legence Bank

Save, Spend, Share

Go!Learn